The students' vocabulary competence of the pretest resulted the average score 6,3. Meanwhile, from the posttest resulted the average score 7,8. It shows the result of the posttest is higher than the result of the pretest and means the students' vocabulary competence increased. CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

A. The Background of The Problem

Many creatures such as animal and even plant species communicate with each other. However, humans are noblest creature in this world and use the kinds of language for communication. As a tool of communication, language is an intermediary of our intention that creates the feelings and action also sets all activities in society. Another definition views language as a system of communication that enables humans to cooperate.

According to Fowler (1855:33-34) “Language – is the utterance of articulate sounds of the human voice for the expression of thought.” He also mentioned on his book, as to the origin of language, three opinions have been maintained:

1. That language was the pure gift of God, conveyed in vocal sounds to the listening ear, as from a teacher to a pupil.
2. That it was the invention of man, contrived for the purpose of communication.
3. That it was neither the pure gift of God nor an invention of man, but the spontaneous result of his organization, just as reason is.

The priority of language in communication is understanding each other, human need to speak to convey what he means to other people who also get the intention of the speaker, so that it will be good interaction. Talk about language and interaction, English language today has been a general language for communication and interaction around the world. Even though we live in a country that does not use English as a national language, but in this era of globalization which is almost of every thing using English as a lingua franca, for example, English language is used on technology, economic field, education, science, state, religion and as a global language of the world, so we need to master English language.

As Farzad Sharifian says on his book (2009:2) “EIL (English as an international language) emphasizes that English, with its many varieties, is a language of international, and therefore intercultural, communication.” So, that is enough to answer why we should learn English language accurately. To follow the progress of current globalization, English language has been taught for a long time in schools. According to David Crystal (2003:5):

English is now the language most widely taught as a foreign language – in over 100 countries, such as China, Russia, Germany, Spain, Egypt and Brazil – and in most of these countries it is emerging as the chief foreign language to be encountered in schools, often displacing another language in the process.

In addition, the curriculum that is used in Indonesia today orientates to the competence, it means students are required to have certain competence or skill as a result of the learning process. The based competence of education emphasizes the ability to be possessed by a graduate education. The competence is often called the standard of competence that generally it's should be mastered by the graduates. Depdiknas defines the competence as knowledge, skill, and primary values that are reflected to thinking and action custom. That custom enables someone becomes competence, in meaning he has knowledge, skill, and primary values to do something consistently and continuously (Majid & Dian Andayani, 2004:52).

Certainly, in communication that using English language, we need to interact and understand each other by using the rules of English language. In an interaction, we can not be separated with the vocabulary which are they content of many words that represent every thing in the world. On the other hand, the skills of reading, speaking, listening and writing also depends on the mastery of vocabulary or the words. As according to Oxford Advance Learner's Dictionary of current (1995:662) "Language is the system of sounds and words used by humans to express their thought and feelings". As a matter of fact, we as human being that using language in our daily communication have learned many thousands of word since childhood.

To know further, according to Jill and Charles Hadfield on their book (2006:45):

A vocabulary item, sometimes called a lexical item, can be:

1. A single word, for example, cat, table
2. Two or three words that go together to make one meaning, for example, a noun like washing machine or a phrasal verb like pass out or come up with
3. A multi-word phrase or chunk of language like as a matter of fact, never mind, by the way.

As we know, the basic English vocabulary has been taught to the students since they at elementary school then to be continued until adult and because of the mastery of vocabulary and their confidence surely, they are going to ready to speak English fluently. Talk about vocabulary, Jill and Charles Hadfield (2006:45) still says that learners need to know:

1. How to spelt
2. How it is pronounced
3. The meaning of the word
4. What part of speech it is
5. Which words it is often used with (collocation)
6. How the word is used: in what situations and contexts

The writer has an experience in teaching English on the seventh grade of Islamic junior high school (MTs Terpadu Tunas Cendekia), and the writer thinks that they have the difficulties of learning English especially in vocabulary. For the example case, when students are during in learning English in the classroom, the writer often meets the student who's still wrong in pronouncing and spelling the words, for example:

Teacher: what's your name?

Student: Ahmad Badri

Teacher: could you spell your name?

Student: ei-eij-em-ei-di bi-di-ar'-i

That student should spell ai for letter i and i for letter e, but he exchanged the letters, even there is a student spell letter y with double yu (w) it so far, they often also mispronounce the words and it's indicated they would find many mistakes in writing the vocabulary. Therefore, they need the rectification and improvement in learning English, in order to improve their vocabulary competence. Certainly, we don't hear a student pronounce or write the word massage for the word message. For another case is they often have difficulty in understanding the meaning of the word (certain vocabulary) the writer is forced to finally give the solution by having the students to find the meaning in the dictionary and tell the meaning to them directly.

Because of students' limitation in memorizing, pronouncing, understanding and using the vocabulary, they need a method or a game that useful in English learning, because sometimes students, they are not really enough only with opening the dictionary. For many cases, mostly of them forgetting the vocabulary just after knowing the meaning.

Today, many methods applied in English classroom, but some of them just appropriate with certain situations, conditions and materials surely. The students need the way to how to master the words (the vocabulary) that useful for any English material. The writer tries to bring up an idea to make easy the students in learning vocabulary by using Spelling Bee game. Spelling bee game in the English learning classroom, practices the teacher as pronouncer and the students as speller with the depth learning continuously. Spelling bee game in the classroom, not only 'spell', but also using the rule of spelling such as the students have to recognize the definition of word (English to English), the form of word, the example of word, the homonym or antonym etc. Spelling bee game gives the aids to the student in memorizing and understanding the vocabularies of any English material. For examples:

Spelling bee game is a fun way learning to give the stimulation on the children or students that study English is joyful. At the first, spelling bee is the highest spelling competition that comes from United State, and usually the words are taken form Merriam-Webster dictionary (downloaded from www.wikipedia.com at 9.23 pm on April 1st 2012). And this study is aimed to find out whether Spelling Bee Game could improve the vocabulary competence of the seventh grade of MTs Terpadu Tunas Cendekia Babakan Ciwaringin.
