

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION

Based on data analysis which use in this research, the writer's conclusion:

1. The students' competence in understanding comma at the second year students of MA Al-Ishlah are low categorized. They Are know how to use comma as punctuation mark but they are disparage and neglect the using of comma, it can be shown from the outcome of test is 27.07 % which means low errors.
2. The result of test analysis that the students' mastery of using comma in writing at the second year students of MA Al-Ishlah are : The students still make error in using comma because they don't know the meaning of sentence, they don't understand type of sentence likes phrase or clause, they hardly to understand what the competence sentence is, and they hardly to understand the sentence.
3. The hindrances the students' understanding of comma especially at the second year students of MA Al-Ishlah are in learning strategy of students, teaching techniques of English teacher, and folklore of foreign language.