

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION

Based on the result of the research, the writer make some conclusions relating to the students' mastery of English vocabulary and their ability in writing short conversation at the second year students of MTs Bahrul Ulum Awipari Tasikmalaya as follows:

1. In measuring the students' mastery of English vocabulary, the writer gives the test on vocabulary at the second year students of MTs Bahrul Ulum Awipari Tasikmalaya. From the result of test given to the students, the average score of the students is categorized high.
2. In measuring the students' ability in writing short conversation, the writer gives the test on conversation to the second year students of MTs Bahrul Ulum Awipari Tasikmalaya. From the students' result of short conversation test, the average score of the students is categorized high.
3. From the calculation of product moment correlation, the result of the correlation between the students' mastery of English vocabulary and their ability in writing short conversation from the respondents of the second year students of MTs Bahrul Ulum Awipari Tasikmalaya is 0.50. It is categorized as "sufficient" correlation.