

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION

Based on the result of the research, the writer would like to draw some conclusions relating to the students' difficulties in reading comprehension through communicative approach at the second year students of SMPN 11 Cirebon as follows:

1. The students difficulties in learning reading comprehension carried out by the writer and the second year students of SMPN 11 Cirebon are successfully achieved because their average score is 8.16. It is categorized as "good".
2. The factors that have caused the students' difficulties in learning reading comprehension through communicative approach is categorized as "low" (27.40%).
3. The teacher's efforts to overcome these difficulties are the efforts to give exercises as homework (70.27%), asking the students to make sentences in front of the class (72.97%), and always asking about their difficulties in learning reading comprehension (67.56%). All these efforts are categorized as 'good' (70.26%).