

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION

After we discussed about “The effectiveness of teaching and learning grammar through Communicative Language Teaching (CLT)” now we can make a conclusion based on the topic above, as follow :

1. The problem faced by the students after teaching and learning grammar through communicative Language Teaching (CLT) are the students felt that the materials of grammar is difficult to be understood (47,64%), and the other problem which faced by the students is the time of teaching and learning English is not interesting (47,60%)
2. The students’ opinion after teaching and learning grammar through Communicative Language Teaching (CLT) in MTs YATAMU Pasawahan are that the Communicative Language Teaching (CLT) is good used in the classroom (50,00%), the students are interested in learning grammar through Communicative Language Teaching (CLT) (47,50%), and the Communicative activity make the learning situation is interesting (57,10%)
3. From the calculation of the students’ grammatical achievement that:
 - a. The result of the simple past tense test from 42 respondents is 2950 and the mean score is 70,2. Based on the classification of the students’ achievement that the score 70,2 is categorize ”good”

- b. The result of the simple present tense from 42 respondents is 2980 and the mean score is 70,9, based on the classification of the students' achievement that the score 70,9 is categorize "good"