

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION

After we discussed about the communicative approach in studying simple past tense at the second year students of MAN I Cirebon and the students' ability of simple past tense, now we can make conclusion based on the topic above, as follows :

1. The students' response of communicative approach at the second year of MAN I Cirebon is weak. From 20 items, the highest score is 84 and the lowest score is 59. The average mark of communicative approach that known from the formula of mean is 34.65
2. The students' ability of simple past tense at the second year of MAN I Cirebon is enough. From 10 items, the highest score is 10 and the lowest score is 2. The average mark of simple past tense that known from the formula of mean is 6.51
3. The data have been analyzed by using the product-moment correlation between variable x and y, and for knowing the significance or not. From the result of the product-moment correlation above is 0.64. The writer interprets that there is "enough" correlation between the communicative approach in studying simple past tense and students' ability in simple past tense. It can be included that there is enough significance of simple past tense through communicative approach.