ABSTRACT

Supriyatna 2004 : The Comparison Between English Vocabulary Achievement Of The Boy And The Girl Students Of The Second Year Students At SMP Islam Terpadu Al-Kahfi Cijeruk Bogor.

English is important in a human life as a tool of the world communication. So, those who aren't English speakers will study English for the sake of the International communication. In Indonesia, English is regarded as the foreign language. It is an important study from elementary schools to universities.

A matter of fact, there are four language skills namely, listening speaking, reading, and writing. But anytime will talk or have a conversation where they meet one and another. Accordingly the purpose of writing this thesis is discussing about speaking by means of observing the vocabulary between the boy and the boy students.

The aims of this research are; to get the data about the students' achievement in English vocabulary, to get the data about the girl students' achievement in English vocabulary, and to compare the boy and the girl student's vocabulary achievement.

In this research the writer used quantitative data using the technique such as: observation, interview, and test. The writer computed this data using "t test" formula. The steps of the research started by determining the theoretical data resource, the empirical data resource and than analyzed.

After the data have been analyzed, the writer can draw a conclusion that the boy and the girl student' achievement in English vocabulary is the same categorized "sufficient". The average score of the boy students is 5,38 and the average the girl students is 5,46.
