ABSTRACT

YUDI FEBRUEN ANNAS: STRUCTURAL AND HERMENEUTIC ANALYSIS IN SONG THEME OF WORLD PEACE “HEAL THE WORLD“ (MICHAEL JACKSON)

Literature comes from Latin word litera which means letter or writing. One of literary works is song. Song is containing from melody, rhythm and tone. Everyone knows that song is related with music. Song is built from several elements that formed a unity and totality. The elements are not separated. They work together to build a good work. Listening some songs are relaxing our mind. As it can be the way to get a new living experience through the song being listen.

The aims or purposes of this research are to analyze and find the moral value from the song, including social, educational and religion value. This value are everything that is useful admirable.

The field of this research in this thesis is literature. The approach used in this thesis is library research or qualitative and website browsing to complete the research, besides other source which complete the research.

Considering the purpose of educational scope in this study, the writer will analyze the song structurally and hermeneutically to reveal some moral value and get the messages through the analysis. Nowadays, peace is an expensive value for the people. Naturally peace is needed for everyone, but why it's very hard to make this peace come true. Peace is many things. The meaning of the word peace changes with context. Peace may refer specifically to an agreement concluded to end a war, or to a lack of external warfare, or to a period when a country's armies are not fighting enemies. We are now live in an era of world peace, but in fact there are wars everywhere.

This thesis tells about what is the important of peace for the people and world through Michael Jackson's song. Michael Jackson is one of the famous people who care about world situation. Michael Jackson gives the wise solution for all of us. He touches everyone with his songs. Finally Michael Jackson invites us to join to care this world with love. In the name of love Michael Jackson unite the people of the world through his songs.
