

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS

1. The writer illustrates that literature is a kind of art writing which used language as the medium of esthetic expression about feelings, ideas, thought and all of activities of human life. Novel is one of literature that consist of intrinsic and extrinsic elements.
2. Pipiet Senja is the pen name of Etty Hadiwati Arief. She was born in Sumedang, May 16th 1957. She was the oldest from the seventh. She began to write since teenager. She was the patient of Hematology with Thallassaemia since she was born. She has to get blood transfusion continually along her life.
3. Religious value is something that correlates with our faith. It is the important point of human being, because it will guide the people to walk on their life. Religious teaches about the act of devotion, kindness, etc. Although there are some of religious in the world, but there is one point that is important namely to worship the God and getting the happiness in the world and after life. Some religious values in the novel "Menggapai Kasih-Mu" by Pipiet Senja are as follows; believe in god, command of god, forbidden of god, charity, sincere, honest, ablutio, patient, fasting, and respectful.