Comments (general or detailed) for the paper::

The discussion method will be perfect if it is broken down based on the stages of the research method used and the results to be much more structured and systematic.

The results of the interview can be described in the discussion section. An author must provide harmony from the theory, the method, and the results, whether the research and discussion will be written in chronological order or based on strategies or theory.

ANALYSIS FROM RESEARCHERS IS NEEDED IN THE DISCUSSION SECTION, RATHER THAN JUST TELLING STORIES

The development of religious authority should be placed in the introduction

In the discussion section, it should be seen that there is a link between the results obtained with the concept or theory
